Recess Inquest In Palos Crash Until June 7

Following a brief taking of testimony Monday at an inquest conducted in the Hickey funeral home, Blue Island, into the death of Ronald Yunker, 17, of Orland, auto crash victim, the proceedings were recessed to June 7 at the Blue Island police station.

In the meantime state police of District 4 will continue their investigation. Some beer was found in the car and authorities are seeking the source of purchase as all three of the occupants of the car were minors.

The driver, Robert Vanek, 16, 159th and Will Cook road, Route 1, Lockport, testified at the inquest that he and Ronald Yunker purchased six quarts of beer from a tavern on 159th st. in Will county. Vanek said that Yunker had opened one of the bottles but that he, Vanek, and Robert Hart, 15, of 156th st. and 118th ave., Orland Park, did not drink anything out of the bottle. Only one bottle had been opened police said.

The trio was bound for a lunch place at 95th st. and the Southwest highway when the accident occurred. They were traveling north on the Southwest highway. At around 121st street, Palos Park, the car left the road.

State Police Sgt. Robert Patton, of Dist. 4, and Patrolman Thomas Bageske, who covered the accident, said that the car traveled 363 feet after leaving the road, struck a driveway and hurtled thru the air approximately 33 feet, then went end over end and rolled for another 54 feet.

Yunker was thrown out of the car just as it hit the driveway. Vanek and Hart rode it out and both escaped with minor lacerations and bruises. Vanek suffered some shock and was held at St. Francis hospital, Blue Island, for 24 hours. Sgt. Patton said Hart was treated at the same hospital and released. Yunker apparently was instantly killed.

At the inquest Monday, which was conducted by Deputy Coroner Fred O'Brien of Oak Lawn, Hart said that he estimated they were traveling between 65 and 70 miles an hour when the car went out of control; Vanek said he believed he was going about 60.

The fatality victim was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Yunker, 143rd and Wolf road, Orland township.

Father, Daughter Drown as Boat Goes Over Dam

Tragedy marked the outing of two Harvey families on the Kankakee river near Wilmington last Sunday.

A father and daughter were drowned when the swift current of the rain swollen stream carried their boat over the Wilmington dam. Two other occupants of the boat were saved.

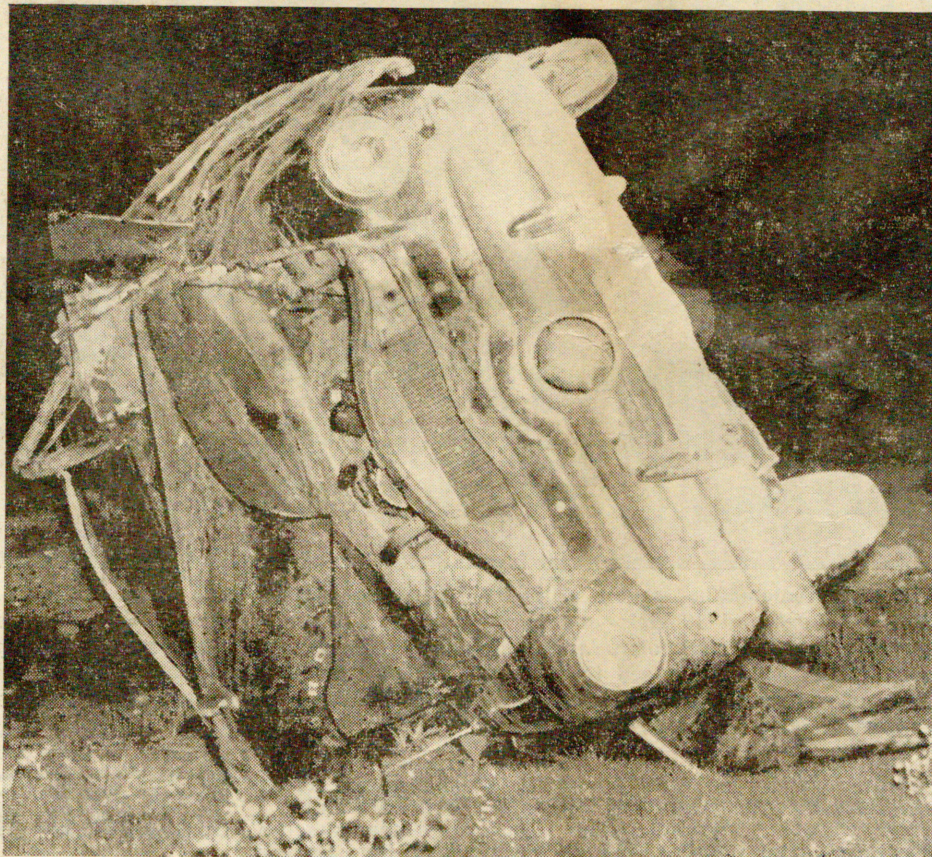

The drowning victims were Clem Bottorff, 42, of 15111 Vincennes ave., and his 15 year old daughter, Sharon.

Clare Stanley, 14, of 15717 Karey st., Phoenix, a friend of Sharon, and 5 year old Harold Holler were rescued. An unidentified man pulled the Holler boy out while firemen from Wilmington and Braidwood rescued the Stanley girl. Both children were revived by firemen. Firemen also saved and revived Harold Holler Sr., who also unable to swim had plunged into the river in an attempt to rescue the victims of the boating accident.

Bottorff and his daughter apparently were sucked into one of the holes at the foot of the dam, made deep by the fall of the water over the years. There is a strong undertow there, according to Wilmington Fire Chief Ralph Adams, that held the two fast. The Stanley girl and Holler boy were released by the undertow and were floating down stream when rescued. Both were unconscious, as was the elder Holler. The Stanley girl was taken to St. Joseph hospital in Joliet where she was treated for shock. The Hollers, father and son, were taken to a physician's office at Wilmington, and later taken to their home. They reside at the same address as the Bottorffs.

There were 19 firemen in the

One Dies, Two Escape

From the appearance of this car it doesn't look as if any of the occupants would have escaped death or serious injury, yet two of them did. One teen-ager, Ronald Yunker, 17, of 143rd and Wolf rd., Orland died in the crash but his companions, Robert Vanek, 16, Rt. 1, Lockport, the driver, and Robert Hart, 17, Orland Park had only superficial hurts. Vanek was hospitalized 24 hours, Hart not at all. The accident occurred about 1:20 a.m. on the S curve between McCarthy rd. and 119th st. on the Southwest highway in Palos Park. After leaving the pavement while northbound the car hurtled along the shoulder 363 feet, hit a driveway and sailed thru the air 33 feet, and then rolled over several times to travel another 51 feet before finally stopping in the position shown in the picture.

1935 JTHS REUNION

The 21st annual reunion dinner of the class of 1935 of the Joliet Township High school will be held Saturday June 9 at 6:30 p.m. in the dining room of the Redwood Lutheran church, Washington and Briggs, Joliet.

Reservations should be made with Ethel LaFontaine, telephone Joliet 3-2339 or with Dorothy Tengdin, Joliet 2-6228.

Two rescue squads and they recovered the bodies.

The accident occurred shortly after 9 o'clock. Bottorff and the three youngsters had been enjoying a ride along the river. They were in a boat built for an outboard motor. A sheared pin put the engine out of commission. By the time Bottorff had shipped a pair of oars and started to row toward shore the boat was too near the dam, and the current too swift for the man to make any headway.

The water was running at a depth of about two feet over the dam. The boat was carried over and dropped about five feet, capsizing.

Thirty feet further on was safety as the river spreads and becomes shallow at that point. The inquest will be held at Wilmington Friday night at 7 o'clock by Will County Coroner Willard G. Blood.

Call Red Cross Drive Success

The Will county chapter of the American Red Cross has been hailed as a success by those in charge altho the combined annual and disaster goals were not attained.

The original quota set last December for the county was $71,550. Because of the great expense involved in flood relief $6,540 was added to the quota in January, making the total to be raised here in 1956—$78,090. The amount raised was $75,575, or approximately $11,000 more than was raised in 1955.

Campaign heads expect that when all reports are in however, that the amount raised will exceed $76,000.

There were more than 30,000 contributors and the chairman express their gratitude for all the aid given in effort and money.

E. B. Workman, Will county probate clerk, was in charge of the drive in the county towns. The total amount raised in these communities was $10,005.44. The county towns' goal was set at $10,000 and all the reports are not completed.

Mrs. Herbert Folkers, chairman of the drive in Frankfort, reported $608.18; Mrs. Glen Nagel, Green Garden chairman, reported $138; Mrs. John Loughlin, Homer chairman, reported $381.70; Miss Caroline Tilsy, of Marley, reports $60; Mrs. Henry K. Koenig, of Mokena, reports $390.82 and Mrs. John Oser, chairman at New Lenox reports $780.76.

Al Smiles, of Joliet, is chairman of the campaign this year. Dr. A. M. Brixey, Joliet, is chairman of the Will county Red Cross chapter.

Have Useful Book For Group Chairman At Mokena Library

The Mokena public library has a very valuable book which would be very helpful to program chairman of such organizations as youth groups, garden clubs, PTA's and others. It is "Guide to Audio-Visual Aids". The catalog lists all the movies obtainable in 16mm., both sound and silent from the University of Illinois.

The subjects contained in the 600 page book run the gamut of sports, animals, botany, candle baking plus many, many others. A separate book is furnished with the guide, listing the films by subject matter.

Organizations may obtain any of these films for a low rental fee from the University of Illinois. The Mokena library invites anyone interested in procuring the films to call any Wednesday evening. They may keep the book one week and study the listings of films available.

Mrs. Minnie Pester, first grade teacher at the Mokena public school, brought her whole class to the library last Friday afternoon by special arrangement.

The children learned how they could get library cards and looked over the many books available for their age group. Many children will borrow books this summer to keep up the practice of their new reading skills.

Library hours are still 7:30 to 9 p.m. every Wednesday night. Librarians for the next month will be Mrs. Ray Over, Mrs. William Zemeske, Mrs. Oliver Schaefer and Mrs. Clarence Miller.

Try J. B. Sardiga On Charge of Mailing Obscene Letter

Trial of a former teacher of this area on a charge of sending an obscene letter thru the mail is scheduled to begin today in the U. S. district court at Springfield.

The defendant, J. Bryce Sardiga, a bachelor, waived his right to a trial by jury and his case will be heard by a judge.

Sardiga was indicted by a federal grand jury at Springfield last March 23, two weeks or more after having resigned his teaching post.

Before coming to this area Sardiga taught at Roodhouse, Ill., near Springfield and it was while he was there that he is alleged to have mailed a letter described in the indictment as "obscene, lewd, lascivious and filthy." It was addressed to a man in Walker, Minn., and allegedly mailed from Roodhouse on or about June 1, 1954.

LETTERS

In the past few months some one has written two anonymous letters criticizing public officials. Apparently they were written with the hope that they would be published. As a matter of fact, newspapers, in general, and this one in particular, dispose of anonymous communications in the nearest waste basket. Persons who write letters they wish published should sign same and also give their address so they may be checked to determine if the signature is genuine. Persons may use a nom de plume if they wish but their real name and address must be signed. But even if the letter is signed there is no compulsion on a paper to use same, especially if it could be construed as libelous.

Expect Large Crowd At Second Annual Graduation June 5

Name Chairman For Doughnut Day Campaign

Chairmen for the Salvation Army's annual "Doughnut Day" in Frankfort and Mokena have been announced by Mrs. Howard A. Olson, of Elmwood, suburban chairman of the fund raising campaign. Mrs. Robert Burns will serve as such in Frankfort and Mrs. Jacob M. Barenz in Mokena.

"Doughnut Day" is the name of the Salvation Army's tag day thru which it raises the money necessary to carry on its various charitable and welfare projects.

Doughnut Day this year will be held June 16. In all communities outside of Cook county, 20 percent of the funds raised in the Doughnut Day drive is retained to meet disasters or emergencies in the community. A committee of local residents representing the Salvation Army decides how the funds will be used.

The other 80 per cent of the Doughnut Day contributions will be used to finance partially the comprehensive social-welfare program maintained by the Salvation Army in the Greater Chicago area.

Among the institutions and departments sharing in these funds are Camp Wonderland near Antioch, the South Side Settlement and Day nursery, Booth Memorial hospital for unwed mothers, Harbor Light center on Skid Row, the Family Service division, the Emergency Lodge for Women and Children, and Catherine Booth hospital for patients with long-term illnesses.

This will be Mrs. Burn's second year as Frankfort chairman. She will serve as a representative of the Women's club. She is also chairman of the Salvation Army service unit in Frankfort and is a member of the P.T.A. there.

Mrs. Barenz, who has been a tagger and location captain for the past four years in Mokena, is a representative of the Army's auxiliary.

"I am happy to help the Salvation Army on Doughnut Day hope to continue," Mrs. Barenz said.

She will be assisted by Mrs. Esther Hilborne, serving as co-chairman.

Schmuhl Voters Will Ballot On Bonds Saturday

Voters of the Schmuhl school district will ballot Saturday on the proposal to build an addition to the present school.

The school will serve as a polling place and will be open to the voters from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

There are two propositions on the ballot. The first deals with whether an addition shall be built to the present structure, and the second with whether bonds in the amount of $50,000 shall be issued by the board to finance the improvements to the school.

The bonds would be in denominations of $1,000 each and would be paid off in 1975. The interest rate would be 3 and 3-4 per cent.

Considerable interest is reported in the election. There are some residents who are opposed to the plan to enlarge the present school plant. They include some of those that last year signed petitions endorsing a recommendation of a U. of I. committee that the Schmuhl district annex to the New Lenox district.

There are others, however, who prefer to have their own school than to become a part of another district.

Proponents of the annexation idea say it would cost the property owners less in taxes to belong to the New Lenox district than to build an addition and hire more teachers for the Schmuhl school.

Those who would retain their own district say the increasing enrollments for New Lenox would necessitate building an addition there and hiring more teachers with a resultant increase in the tax rate there.

This difference in opinion is expected to bring the voters out Saturday.

The Salvation Army served almost 14,000,000 meals to the hungry during 1955, and gave shelter to 2,473,000 homeless people.

Almost 2,000 released prisoners are paroled annually to The Salvation Army.

The fourth quarterly conference will convene after the dinner, then the assembly will proceed to the parsonage for the service there.

The $25,000 home is of red cedar siding. It contains three bedrooms, a kitchen, living and dining room, utility room, breezeway and garage. Construction was started last October. The Rev. John E. Vautrin is pastor of the Green Garden Methodist church.

Everyone in the community is invited by the committee in charge to attend any or all of these functions. The Youth Fellowship and the young women of the church will serve refreshments in the church basement at the conclusion of the dedication services.

Children's Day will be held in the Green Garden Methodist church Sunday, June 10. All the children in the Sunday school will participate in the program. They will practice at 2 p.m. Friday, June 1 and Thursday June 7.

Science Teacher Resigns At L-W To Take St. Louis Job

Charles F. Ellermann, who has taught biology and general science at Lincoln-Way Community high school during the past two years, has resigned in order to accept a teaching position in the science department of the secondary school system of St. Louis, Mo.

The Ellerman family plans to move to St. Louis during the month of August.

The case containing a ship's compass is the binnacle.

The second annual commencement of Lincoln-Way high school is at hand. Seventy-eight young men and women of the Class of 1956 will receive their diplomas next Tuesday night when graduation exercises are held in the school gymnasium, beginning at 8 o'clock with the overture, "Berkshire Hills" by the high school band.

Carl M. Noble, president of the Electric Eye Equipment Co. at Danville, is to be the commencement speaker. He will be introduced by Richard Keeley, a member of the Lincoln-Way faculty and sponsor of this year's senior class.

The presentation of the class will be made by A. Hunter Chapman, principal, and the diplomas will be presented by Albert A. Krusemark, Jr., president of the high school board.

The program will begin with a procession with the band playing "Land of Hope and Glory." Then will follow the invocation given by the Rev. Cecil Koop, pastor of St. Mary's church, Mokena.

The commencement address and the giving out of diplomas will come next followed by benediction by the Rev. Herschel Aseltine, pastor of the Marley church and then comes the recessional, with the band playing the same piece as for the procession.

The procession will be the beginning of the end but the recessional, as the class leaves the gymnasium for the last time as a unit, is really the end of a phase of life that is gone.

An informal reception for the graduating seniors will be held in the cafeteria and main lobby of the school after the program in the gymnasium is concluded.

It is expected that a capacity crowd will witness the graduation ceremonies.

New Vice President For Gas Company Comes From East

The election of Henry A. Diekmann as vice president in charge of sales and advertising of Northern Illinois Gas Co. was announced today by Marvin Chandler, president.

The best thing that parents can spend on their children is time—not money.

Almost Home

The fund drive to finance the building and operating program of the New Lenox Methodist church is within $11,000 of its goal of $100,000 and Glenn Valy, left, chairman of the membership canvass and Ronald Crisman, extreme right, general chairman of the campaign are confident that when all sources of funds have been contacted the goal will be reached. Between Valy and Crisman are the Rev. George Martin, pastor of the New Lenox Methodist church, and Mrs. Martin.

Get Practical Course in Child Care In Home Ec. Course at Lincoln-Way

Seven girls in the child care unit of the Homemaking course at Lincoln-Way high school have been getting some practical demonstrations in the subject. During the week of the 14th 27 youngsters—14 boys and 13 girls—ranging in age from three to almost six, were brought to the school for half day sessions. There were four such sessions. From all reports the pre-schoolers and high schoolers enjoyed the experience. The picture is said to have been taken the last day and shows that age certainly takes its toll. Anyone can see that the pre-school crew is displaying quite a bit more bounce than the high school contingent. But that's the way it goes. The energy of a younger generation always amazes an older generation. Up in the right hand corner appears to be a mirror which reflects the image of the faculty member who took this picture.

American Peoples Encyclopedia reports that Illinois produced 516 million bushels of corn while Iowa's yield was slightly more than 450 million. The big crop followed the great drought in the southern half of Illinois which lasted three years.

Population was another thing that went up in Illinois last year. Births were exceeding deaths at the rate of 125,000 annually and by midyear the state population reached about 9.2 million. Two groups were increasing the fastest; those under 20 years of age, and retired persons 65 years and over.

four years. Mr. Pedersen, who is selves at card games in the re-was also part of the entertainment. Mrs. Eleanor Lauffer gave a clever skit on "Married

Following the games Miss Rita was seated under a large

Festivities are scheduled to begin at 1 o'clock with a flag raising ceremony conducted by the Mokena VFW post under the direction of Commander Clarence Werner, and the Lincoln-way high school band, conducted by Robert Taylor, will furnish music for the program. Alvin S. Sorensen, president of the Mokena Baseball association, is counting on a large attendance for the opener. He urges all fans to turn out. All league play does not begin until June 11 in the case of the Small Fry and June 12 in the Babe Ruth circuit, the games against Orland Saturday should be thrillers.

The Mokena Babe Ruth outfit is smarting from a 7 to 5 beating at the hands of Orland last Sunday on the Orland diamond, and the Orland Small Fry are out for revenge for the shutout suffered on the same day. Mokena Small Fry not only blanked Orland, 2-0, but also kept them hitless. But the credit for pitching a no-hitter must be divided among three pitchers, Joe Johnson, Paul Brown and Mark Mueller. Each hurled two innings.

In the Babe Ruth contest Mokena pushed four runs over the plate after two were out in the third inning. Orland scored one run that same inning on two errors and a stolen base but tied the count in the fourth frame with three runs. Del Yunker slammed a homer in Mokena's half of the fifth but their lead was shortlived. Orland added another three runs to its count when it came to bat and that was the end of the scoring for both teams.

An attempt by an Orland runner to steal home in the sixth inning was nipped by Yunker but their collision between Yunker and the runner dropped both of them. Both scrambled to their feet but Yunker collapsed again. A check revealed that he had had his wind knocked out and his face bruised but he recovered quickly. Carroll was the winning pitcher.

More than 80 boys are out for the teams in Mokena this spring. Besides the Babe Ruth and Small Fry nines the Farm club, coached by Wendell Hamilton is also in the baseball picture in Mokena. Jim Wrath is coaching the Small Fry, with the assistance of Bob Hohenstein, and Harry Fee is in the charge of the Babe Ruths.

Baseball, it was pointed out, is not only a wholesome sport that provides the player with fun and health but its an excellent means of keeping youngsters occupied. Just remember it's pretty hard for a kid to get into trouble with one hand in a baseball mitt. Support of the teams by the community is merited.

In colonial America, nine out of 10 people had to work on the land to provide enough for themselves and the 10th person living in town.

Illinois plants that are poisonous to livestock include larkspur, water hemlock, poison hemlock, oak shoots and wild cherry.

Tigers Defeat Flossmoor, 14-3, Lose to Prison

The Tinley Tigers won their second league game in a row last Sunday by trouncing Flossmoor 14 to 3.

The Tigers had plenty of power at the plate and played airtight ball on defense, a good combination with which to fashion a win.

Tinley wasted no time, pushing in eight runs in the second inning and then kept adding to the total as the game progressed.

This Sunday the Tigers will travel to Lansing's Lan-Oak park for another league tilt. According to Moose Naseband, Tinley's manager, the Lansing club poses a real threat to Tinley's title aspirations.

The Tigers were not so fortunate last Saturday when it took on an outside team that plays on the inside—the prison nine at Stateville. The prisoners won 11 to 6. A light rain fell during the entire game, putting both teams under a tremendous handicap.

Naseband put himself in the lineup in the ninth and hit a home run but there was no one on base.

Bremen Loses To Rich, 5-4, In Final Game

The Bremen high Braves closed their 1956 baseball season with a 5-4 defeat at the hands of the Rich Rockets on the Matteson field Thursday afternoon, May 24.

Leading 4-1 going into the last half of the sixth with two out, the Braves seemed headed for their eighth conference win in twelve starts when the roof caved in. The Rockets put across three tallies on a walk and three hits to deadlock the score.

In the final frame with nobody on and one out, Wayne Buttery relieved starter Don Dzennik. Rich then scored the winning run off Buttery who was charged with the loss.

Frank Warszelek, a senior in his last game, was the big gun for Bremen as he collected three of his teammates' five safeties and drove in two runs in the first with a circuit clout.

Bremen's over-all season's record stands at 110 wins and six losses. With a 7-5 record in conference play, the Braves finished third behind Reavis and Rich.

The Braves reached their season's peak in the district tournament as they defeated Thornton, Lockport, and Joliet Catholic. Bloom, who advanced to the sectional finals, dealt Bremen its only tourney loss.

Build Backstop At St. Jude's Diamond

St. Jude's school has a new backstop for its baseball diamond, thanks to the efforts of neighbors and men of the church who did the work. A little more dirt for the infield and the field will be in good shape. It is used by the Small Fry and other New Lenox teams as well as the school.

Highlights In Farm Life

by W. F. Whiteside,
Cook Co. Asst. Farm Advisor
The county 4H program has been buzzing with activity this past week. Two Share the Fun programs were held. Camp reservations were completed. Local 4H clubs are selecting candidates for King and Queen of the 4H Fair, and the 4H Fair Board is deeply involved in plans for the 4H Fair, which will be held in Chicago Heights, Aug. 17, 18, 19.

The Share the Fun program provides the opportunity for 4H members to show their talents in music, dance, plays and skits, and master or mistress of ceremonies. Unfortunately, the county winners cannot be announced at this time. A second program will be held June 5 at the Homewood Village Hall to allow more participation. Winners will be announced after this event. Many of the acts will be selected to appear at the 4H Fair.

Fifty one agricultural 4H club members are scheduled to attend district 4H Camp near Kankakee. Camping is a wonderful experience in group living, and in addition, it is fun. The Rich Go Getters 4H club caught a preview of the camp facilities when they held their annual picnic at the camp on National 4H Sunday, May 6. 4H members, parents and friends enjoyed the picnic. This is an example which I hope more clubs will follow. Leaders Herbert Kohl and Melvin Foser of Rich Bremen; Arlene Elbers and Mrs. Herbert Kohl of Rich Go Getters are to be congratulated for their efforts in promoting the 4H camping program.

Floyd Adair, president of the 4H Fair Association has appointed committees to develop the various phases of the fair program. Service and commercial organizations will be contacted to help with the Fair. Floyd and the board are working vigorously for a successful Fair. In the interest of helping the 4H boys and girls enjoy a successful year I am sure we will receive the splendid support of interested people and organizations that we have enjoyed in the past.

I have received a number of inquiries recently concerning the Federal Wage Hour law, which was amended last year to raise the minimum wage to $1.00 per hour. In general the following exemptions apply to agricultural workers. Farm workers who cultivate the soil and raise crops or livestock or poultry are exempt. Harvesting work is also exempt. Workers within an area of production who handle, store or process agricultural or horticultural commodities for market are exempt. An "area of production" means the plant or operation must be in the open country or in a community of less than 2,500 population, and receive its raw products within certain distances; for example, 15 miles for fruits and vegetables and 50 miles for grain, poultry and eggs. Workers engaged in processing outside an area of production are extended a partial exemption.

Norman Bernard or Mokena was in the office today. Norm is in the service now, and is home prior to going on an overseas assignment. He has been an active member of the 4H Fair Board, leader of the Orland Boys 4H club, and in his club member days, an active and outstanding 4H'er. We wish Norm the best of luck and anxiously await his return to the ranks of the good friends and workers of the 4H program.

Norman Oebker, University of Illinois Vegetable Crops Specialist, recently sent me the latest recommendations for tomato and insect control, which are as follows:

"The first application of a fungicide should be made no later than two weeks after the first crown-cluster flowers are seen. Four or five applications should be made at 7 to 10 day intervals. Zerkate and Captan will give good control of early blight and anthracnose, while Manzate, Dithane-Z-78, Dithane M-22, or Dyr Parzate will serve as an all purpose fungicide for tomatoes.

"When spraying, apply approximately four pounds of fungicide with 100 to 150 gallons (depending on whether tomatoes are stalked or not; the lower gallonage can be used on stalked tomatoes) of water per acre of tomatoes. When dusting, use an 8 to 10 percent mixture and apply at least fifty pounds of dust per acre. Remember good coverage is essential for good control.

"For control of hornworm, fruitworm and other chewing insects except grasshoppers, TDE (Rhothane) at the rate of 1 1/2 to 2 pounds per acre is recommended. This insecticide can be added to the above fungicide schedule and be used with the first three or four fungicidal applications. For the control of aphids, Malathion, at the rate of 1 1/2 to 2 pounds per acre is recommended. Malathion can be included in the above spray schedule or applied separately depending on when aphids are present on tomatoes. Malathion can be used with three days of harvest."

It won't be long now before we will be spraying equipment moving across the fields to remove the persistent battle against insects and plant diseases. Several precautions should be observed to make this job easier, safer and more effective. Because sprays can be dangerous to both people and plant life if they are not used properly, read the label on the container and follow the instructions.

Get your spray rig in top operating condition before you attempt to spray a crop. Calibrate the spray rig under field conditions. If you calibrate on a hard road and then spray in a soft field, your field speed will be much slower. A drop of one mile per hour field speed will boost delivery of spray material 20 to 30 per cent under the same pressure.

Look out for spray drift. If there are sensitive crops near by, such as tomatoes and soybeans, hold off while the wind is blowing, so you won't run the risk of damaging the sensitive crop. The amine type of 24D, will drift less than the ester type.

If you wish further information on weed sprays, I will send free of charge Circular 742 entitled "Chemical Control of Weeds and Brush."

There are two new entries in the field of chemical weed control which show great promise. They are recommended for use on a trial basis. Amino Triazole appears to be very effective on Canada thistle. It should be used at the rate of 4-6 pounds in 20 gallons of water per acre. About 10 days after application work the ground for corn. Amino Triazole should be applied on sunny days, preferably when no rain is expected for 24 hours.

Randox as a pre-emergence herbicide appears to control Giant Foxtail and annual grasses. It can be used on corn and soybeans. Apply immediately after planting. Use 4 pounds of the acid in 10 gallons of water per acre. Germinating corn and soybean seeds have a tremendous tolerance to this chemical.

I emphasize the fact that these chemicals should be used on a small area to observe results. Limited supply and high cost will also affect the use of these chemicals. Cultural practices are still the first line of defense against weeds, with chemicals as reinforcement.

The weather conditions of the past week have been helpful in replenishing our moisture supply. However, it has delayed the setting of tomato plants. These weather conditions help to retard insect activity. Warm weather will greatly stimulate their activity. As it looks now, spittlebugs will be a problem in this area. Examine your hay field for the small yellow nymphs, especially in folded leaves, behind leaf sheath, and in the crown of the plant. Check at least 100 stems at random. If the nymphs average one per stem, treat the field if you need the hay. One-fourth pound of BHC (benzohexachloride) or ludane per acre will control this pest. Allow 4 weeks to elapse before harvest. Methoxy-chlor at one and one-half pounds per acre or Heptachlor at 1/2 pound may be applied up to with in 10 days of harvest. Early applications are still most effective.

Cool weather has slowed corn borer development. This may or may not mean moth emergence will be late. All this means, delay corn planting until the latter part of May. If you plan to plant early, plan to apply insecticides when they are needed.

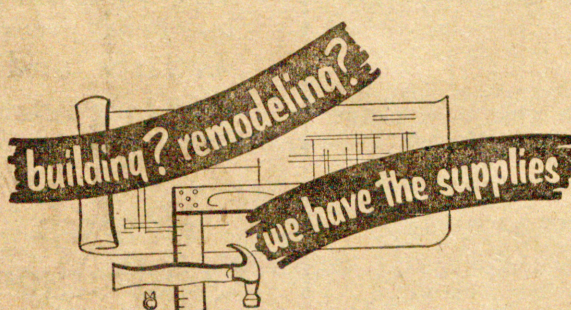

Bill Stelter of Tinley Park, Chairman of the South Cook Soil Conservation district and Charley Fletcher, Farm Planner, conducted the Sedan Prairie Conservation Group on a soil tour on the Ernest Kampe farm. Soil types, soil capabilities, farming practices and surface drainage were inspected and discussed. Other farmers attending were Melvin Rohlving, Allen Blume of Matteson and Raymond Siekmann of Tinley Park. Charley Fletcher tells me that soil borings taken that day indicated subsoil moisture to be nearly adequate and considerably improved over two weeks ago.

I read recently that our fingernails grow 7 1/2 feet during a lifetime. Of course we keep them clipped or chew them off. Since the chigger season is starting, it may be wise to let them grow. A better method would be to purchase a repellent if you are going on a picnic or spray or dust your lawn to get rid of them. These repellents are good: benzyl benzoate, dimethyl carbate, and dimethyl phthalate. They may be procured at a drug or hardware store. Treat arms and legs, if not covered by clothing. You may treat clothing along edges inside and out. Be careful about using repellents on synthetic fabrics.

You can wipe out chiggers from a lawn or campsite by using lindane, chlordane or toxaphene in either spray or dust forms. Apply 2 1/2 to 3 gallons of spray per 1000 sq. ft. or dust 1 1/4 pounds per 1000 sq. ft.

"SHOTGUN" CULTIVATION Saves Time and Money!

With a John Deere Rotary Hoe, you can do early cultivation in half the time—save up to 40 per cent on fuel and do more thorough work than with a regular cultivator.

There's no need for careful aim, since the shallow-working tines do not harm the crop. The John Deere Rotary Hoe is perfect for blind crust-breaking—safe for high-speed cultivation until the crop is up 6 to 8 inches. With a 4-row hookup, you can clean up an 80-acre field in one 10-hour day.

There's a size and type to fit your need. Stop in and look them over—see for yourself why more farmers buy John Deere Rotary Hoes than any other kind.

Business and Finance

by Maurice P. Angland

Records show that the trend is generally up in the summer in bull markets and that in bear markets rallies often have followed late spring declines.

If May finishes at a low level, it is often a good bet that the market will have risen above it in July or August. It has done just that in the industrial average for 50 of the last 59 years.

In the last 25 years there have been only two summer declines—in 1950 when it amounted to less than one per cent, and in 1946, when the dip was a little more than 2 per cent.

The average summer rise has been about 10 per cent.

The only time the market did not rise during a bull movement was in 1950 when it was hampered by the outbreak of the Korean War.

It should be of interest to summarize a speech given by I.
W. Wilson, President of Aluminum Company of America, before the New York Society of Security Analysts, on the future of his company and expected increases in uses of aluminum.

Important points of his speech follow:

1. In the next five years capital expenditures of about $600 million may be required by the company to finance expanded production facilities.

2. The company may have to borrow $150 million over the next few years depending on the effect of business conditions in the future of cash flow.

3. By 1975 consumption of aluminum in the country could reach 5 million tons a year against 2 million tons now.

4. More and broader uses of aluminum are being discovered in 1955 the average automobile contained 32.5 pounds of this metal and it is estimated that by 1960, automobiles will average 50 pounds of aluminum each.
The canning industry is another potentially large consumer of the light metal.

5. Production of aluminum requires large amounts of electric power. Mr. Wilson states that his company has found electricity derived from lignite and coal powered generators, to be cheaper than natural gas and hydroelectric energy. Atomic energy is being carefully studied for generation and may be considered at some future date, but at this time it is too expensive.

A discussion of the automobile industry before the Wall Street Forum, brought out that although production of passenger cars for the first quarter of 1956, is 18 per cent below 1955, the production of trucks is ahead of 1955—314,000 as against 264,000.

Any appraisal of current sales and earnings of the automobile industry, should consider the fact that last year's car market was the best in the industry's history. Thus although sales and income are off last year's pace, there is still room for a normal year for the big three.

Production figures for the industry indicate that the big fight in this industry is between Ford and Chrysler. General Motors is more than holding its own. Comparative production figures for 1956 are of interest.
For the first three months of 1956, General Motors accounted for 55.5 per cent as against 49.1 per cent last year; Ford produced 25.3 per cent as against 26.2 per cent last year; Chrysler accounted for 14.6
per cent against 19.4 per cent, and all the independents produced 4.6 per cent against 5.3 per cent last year.

The sun dial was probably the earliest instrument for measuring time.

The Lincoln Log

Junior-Senior Prom
"Stairway to the Stars" was the theme of Lincoln-Way's 1956 Junior-Senior Prom, held Friday evening, May 18.
The school gymnasium was transformed into a romantic setting of a starlight evening. Yards and yards of blue crepe paper, stars, and fluffy white clouds were used in creating this effect.
In the center of the dance floor soft blue lights illuminated a stairway of blue, white and gold which spiraled into a white cloud. Candelighted tables, creating an outdoor cafe effect, lined the outer edge of the dance floor.
As guests drove their cars up to the main entrance, Doorman Don Carter, was on hand with his services.
After a "priming session" in the powder room, the girls joined their escorts and then made their way through the receiving line.
Dancing from 8:30 to 12:30 preceded the banquet served by the parents of the L-W Parent-Teacher Group, headed by Mrs. Don Anderson. Fathers of Junior class members served. Table decorations of stars and candles, handled by Mrs. Floyd Mundi's committee, created a night club effect in the school cafeteria.
At 1:30, following the banquet a motion picture "The Farmer Takes a Wife" starring Betty Grable was shown in the school library.
Several breakfasts were given by parents Saturday morning to wind up the night-long festivities.

Wednesday, May 23 the roads in Laguna Woods were oiled after having been graded by Carl Bormet, road commissioner. Mr. Anderson collected $10. from every home and lot owner so this could be accomplished without depleting the treasury. Our thanks to Art Arnold and Andy for helping solve the dust problem. Our next project is to install the slow signs to protect our children at play.

Sgt. and Mrs. Clarence Benson enroute to their California home after spending two years in Germany, stopped to visit with the Andersons Tuesday afternoon. The Bensons flew from Germany to New York and then to Flint where they spent some time with relatives and were greeted with that city's tornado.

Many of us have been thrilled by the arrival of the beautiful scarlet tangier and his mate and watch as they busily stuff themselves on Andy's grass seed.

Mrs. John Tabbert's cocktail party which was to have been held in her home Thursday was held at a friend's home as our roads had been newly oiled. Mrs. Tabbert entertained her bowling team.

Our Cub Scouts had a gala evening last Friday as guests of Pack 3784 at the Seymour Whittier school gym where they attended an Indian program.

After a play by the Scouts several teenage boys did an Indian Ceremonial dance. The boys were also thrilled to see the Veterans of Foreign Wars march across the stage at the end of the program.

Last Saturday evening the Home Owners association of Laguna Woods had dinner at the Valley View farm, with 10 couples attending. A young lad of 12 years played beautiful music on his accordion and everyone was surprised to hear the young maestro was blind.

After a lovely dinner the group went to the Firemen's dance in Orland Park and all had a wonderful time! We all missed the Woodburys who left us during dinner at Valley View as Mrs. Woodbury suddenly had an attack of chills.

Lightning Still No. 1 Cause of Fires in World

By Robert Mann
Forest Preserve Dist.

Because we are so rapt up with our modern inventions, we forget that primitive man, ages before the beginnings of civilization, made one of the greatest discoveries of all time—the use of fire. However, for thousands of years before he learned to kindle his own fires by friction or by striking sparks from flint, he snatched flaming firebrands from forest fires started by lightning. These he carried away and carefully fed with dry wood, year in and year out, to warm his cave, frighten away wild beasts and cook his food. Around the world every year, countless thousands of fires are started by lightning.

On a sultry summer's evening a distant storm cloud with its flickering tracery of lightning and its far-off muttering rumble is one of nature's finest spectacles. But one overhead, with its blinding flashes of light, the snap and crash of thunder, whipping winds and drumming rain, is awesome and terrifying. In olden times an electrical storm was looked on as a show of power by an offended god. To the American Indians, lightning was the fiery glances from the eye of the Thunderbird. In Norse mythology it was the mighty hammer blows of Thor. From these flaming spears of Zeus, king of the Greek gods, Prometheus stole fire and gave it to man. Not until the time of Benjamin Franklin with his famous kite experiment was it proven that lightning is a greatly elongated electrical spark.

A thunderstorm starts as an ordinary fleecy white cloud. A cloud which forms when an updraft of warm air is cooled enough for part of its moisture to condense into a cap of fog droplets at a height of about a mile. Occasionally, when the lower air is warm and muggy, this column of air surges upward at speeds of 100 miles an hour or more and the cloud piles up mile after mile. The fog droplets combine to form large raindrops which start to fall but are torn into mist and whirled upward to reform again and again as rain or hail in the blast of this invisible chimney. In this churning cloud enormous charges of static electricity are built up between its different parts or between the cloud and the earth. When great enough they discharge as giant sparks sometimes miles long. For example, a lightning stroke starts upward from some tall tree, building or other high point on the earth in a series of jerky steps called the "leader". Instantly, the main charge of electricity flows back along this path with a burst of light and a clap of thunder. Thunder is merely the explosive expansion of the air along that channel.

A live tree struck by lightning may be blown to pieces or only a narrow strip of bark may be ripped off. Such damage is caused by the heating of the tree's sap into steam causing the wood to explode or be cooked to death. Regardless of species, it has been found that the taller trees in a forest and trees standing alone or in small groves are most likely to be struck.

Lightning, overall, is our No. 1 cause of fires. Each year in the United States it takes the lives of about 400 people and cripples another thousand. Hunters, fishermen, sportsmen, vacationers, farmers and others who spend a lot of time in the open are particularly vulnerable. A gun or fishing rod in your hands attracts lightning. Mountains, rowboats and golf courses are especially dangerous. If you are caught in the open with lightning snapping and crackling all around, stay away from fences and do not seek shelter under a lone tree. It is best to lie flat on the ground until the storm has passed over. Thunder five seconds after the flash means it missed you a mile.

Washington Notes

Aid, With Strings!

In spite of vehement opposition, the Administration probably will get much, if not most, of its $4.9 billion foreign aid program — with strings attached.

Pressures on Congress come from many sources. War threats in Middle East strengthens proposals for funds for this area—$1.6 billion for military assistance—a special $100 million military fund for use in the Middle East or Africa.

Administration wants "flexibility"—authority to concentrate expenditures in "crisis" areas. This might mean heavy expenditures to prevent war in Asia or keep countries out of the Soviet orbit.

Military assistance programs would be boosted—a half-billion dollars is included for atomic and other advanced weapons for European anti-Communist nations.

Program includes continued heavy purchases of surplus agricultural products for other nations—also perhaps coal, tobacco and the like. Such spending means votes for Senators and Representatives in areas affected by the purchases.

Tidiness on Farm May Save Animals Lives

Farm animals with their curious tongues and habit of exploring by tasting may become victims of poisoning if you don't keep things like grease, lead paint and fertilizers out of their reach.

Dr. D. I. Newton of the University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine suggests that you have a spring clean-up and fix-up day on your farm to remove poison and injury threats to your livestock. Here are some points to consider in tidying up the farmstead:

1. Repair fences and buildings to keep animals where they are supposed to be.

2. Clean up stray nails, bits of wire, broken machinery and other sharp metal objects. Animals, especially cows, may swallow them and get hardware disease, a condition in which the metal objects penetrate the stomach wall. Trash in corrals and pastures may also cause foot injuries that open the way to such infections as tetanus and foot rot.

3. Keep greased machinery and lubricant containers out of reach of livestock. Petroleum products, including some roofing materials, may contain certain chemicals that cause hyperkeratosis (X-disease).

4. Don't use lead paint where animals can lick it, and don't leave old storage batteries lying around the yard. Weathering does not alter poisonous qualities of lead and lead products.

5. Be very careful about storing and handling chemicals used for fertilizing, for spraying or dusting crops, or for killing rodents and for controlling parasites. Many of them are toxic to livestock. Completely destroy empty containers that have held the materials.

6. Keep a good cover above salt licks so that rain won't form a brine, which is toxic to livestock.

Farm folks have been hearing a lot about the "plow plant" and other minimum tillage methods of planting corn. Tests conducted in other states have shown reduced labor and equipment costs, retaining good soil physical condition, less trouble with annual weeds, and increased water absorption. Yields, instead of being reduced, were increased in many cases. At present our University of Illinois Agronomy Department is arranging several tests throughout the state to determine the value of minimum tillage in Illinois. I believe we have enough evidence to justify keeping extra tillage operations to a minimum. Pay less attention to preparation of very fine seedbeds for corn.

The Louisiana Purchase nearly doubled the size of the U.S.

Write an eminent English journalist, back home after visiting the U. S. "Whether it's bulldozing roads in Korea, or breeding pigs in Illinois, or making gadgets for removing ice cubes from refrigerators, the American people are alive, alert, curious, combative—and rarin' to go!"

To the West

Lesson for June 3, 1956

IN PAUL'S vision at Troas, his night visitor did not say, "Come over into Europe and help us." He only said "Macedonia." In fact, the word Europe does not occur in the story at all. Paul and his contemporaries were not conscious of moving from one continent to another when they set sail for Macedonia. Nevertheless it was a notable move. The Christian church was moving west, and it has never stopped permanently at any frontier. The little party that took ship for Samothracia was only one of countless groups of Christians westward bound. This was the first step in a great march. The Gospel was carried into every country in Europe, then into the Americas. Here in North America, as the settlers moved inland, westward and ever westward, as the frontier moved across the land the church moved with it. Sometimes the church itself did the pioneering, as the Roman church did in California or the Protestants in Oregon.

Pea vines and people often change when transplanted to a different soil and climate. So it is with the church. The church at Antioch was different from the church in Jerusalem, and the church at Corinth was still different and by the time the church reached Rome and settled there, more changes could be seen. Churches in Northern Britain were not just like those of southern Italy. When the church came to America, there were further changes. To this day, a Presbyterian church in this country will be in many ways unlike the church of the same name in Scotland. English Methodists and American Methodists can easily be told apart. American Baptist denomination has said in public how hard it was at first for him to feel at home here. Even in the Roman Catholic church priests who have been in America all their lives find some features of European Catholic churches rather strange, and vice versa. In America, too, as the church moved west it changed its ways.

Always the Same

"The more it changes, the more it stays the same," is a French proverb, which might well describe the church of God. It is quite true, the church has gone through many changes as it has moved westward with the years, but at heart, when it has had a heart, it has always been the same. (We say "When it has had a heart," because some churches have lost heart, or lost their heart, grown cold and died.) It would be quite a shock for a member of any American church east or west to walk into a meeting of the church at Corinth in St. Paul's time. It would be just as puzzling for a Corinthian to enter any American church—a great cathedral in New York or a country church forty miles from anywhere; neither one would be like his Corinthian meeting. But the heart of the church is the same. In Corinth, Kansas City or the Kentucky hills, wherever people are gathered together who love the Lord Jesus, who adore Him as Son of God and know Him as their Saviour, wherever those who love Christ are united to serve mankind in His name, there is the Christian church at worship and at work. Languages and forms differ, but the spirit of Christ is always the same.

Frontiers of the Future

When the church reached the eastern edge of the Pacific Ocean, had it come to the last frontier? Is there anywhere else to go? Of course there is. Beyond the Pacific are two vast continents. The Christian church has been so busy stretching westward that it has all but forgotten the "East"—which now is literally our Far West. Asia, Africa and the islands of the seas are our Christian frontiers, the frontiers of the future, and the church is (if yet only dimly) aware of them. The churches along these frontiers will be different from the churches "back home" as ours are different from Corinth and Jerusalem. But the Spirit will be there; for wherever there are true churches, there Christ lives and works again.

U. of I. Ready to Aid High Schools in Giving Students Firm Foundation for Rhetoric Courses

When the University of Illinois Board of Trustees recently announced its decision to drop remedial rhetoric, it generated a mild scholastic explosion throughout the nation. Editorial comment was almost unanimously favorable. High school teachers and students wanted to know why the special-help course was being thrown out and what they should do now.

The University's catalogue calls the course—Rhetoric 100—an "intensive review of fundamentals with considerable practice in composition." Students who are poor in English will not be able to take this non-credit course after September 1960. It will not be taught after that date.

The reason for the decision is plain. The University can no longer afford the often futile expenditure of time and money and the employment of valuable staff members to try to teach college students what they should have been taught earlier.

In his recommendation for abolishing Rhetoric 100, Prof. C. W. Roberts, director of freshman rhetoric, asked that the money spent on the high-school-level course be used to strengthen the college-level instruction in the regular rhetoric courses.

"Certainly laboring to get 18-year-old young men and women to tell the difference between 'their' and 'there' is not the proper business of higher education," Prof. Roberts said. "Yet that is the sort of instruction we have to offer in Rhetoric 100."

Almost 30 per cent of the freshman class in September 1955 failed the Freshman Rhetoric Placement Test used to discover which students are qualified to enter the basic college rhetoric course. The freshmen who failed betrayed ignorance of basic writing techniques, grammar, spelling, and punctuation. All of these skills are essential to success in college, and the prospective freshman should have mastered them before he left high school.

"Many high schools are doing fine work in English," Prof. Roberts said, "but we get some of freshman who can't even spell the name of the high school that gave them a diploma."

One such student chose as his test theme topic, "What they see in Martin and Lewis." He wrote:

"The acts that are put on by this team are very amusing because the plays that are put on are in everyone's mind at some time or other, that is, in a person's sense of humor. I think Martin and Lewis went to the top mainly for this reason. They have increased in popularity at a terrific pace and have went so far as to be a big hit at stage shows, television, and some movies. It is in my opinion that most of the hilarious comedy acts are centered around Jerry Lewis."

The University of Illinois is ready to help high school English teachers in their attempts to maintain more respectable standards in composition. To this end the university senate committee on student English and English department have published an explanatory booklet entitled, "Standards in Freshman Rhetoric."

The booklet was read and approved before publication by about 50 high school and college teachers thruout Illinois. About 15,000 copies have been sent without charge to teachers, school boards, and other interested persons. Requests for copies are still coming in from thruout Illinois and from other states as well.

The book explains the standards maintained in the Freshman rhetoric courses and gives examples of themes actually written on the placement test that faces freshmen.

It does not pretend to be a teaching guide book. It does not tell the teacher how to teach. It states with uncompromising precision the minimum requirements of the University and leaves methods up to the secondary schools.

The "Standards" booklet includes a 100-item objective test of the type given as a part of the placement examination. The objective test is designed for an average college freshman score of 75. It asks the student to indicate the correct form in multiple choice questions. For example, section A asks students to indicate the word nearest in meaning to the underlined word:

1. The speech was full of eloquent invective. a. eulogy b. denunciation c. comparison
2. He was a verbose lecturer. a. learned b. vivid c. wordy
3. Is he a contemporary writer? a. fluent b. objectionable c. current

In section B, the student is asked to indicate the correct spelling for each word:

1. a. proclaimed b. proclaimed c. proclaimed
2. a. suppress b. suppress c. suppress
3. a. tendency b. tendancy c. tendency

In section C, student is to indicate the best version of the underlined passage:

1. They called Doctor Green. a. Doctor Green b. Dr. Green c. Doc. Green

2. Well, Bill, what do you think? a. Well, Bill, what b. Well Bill, what c. Well Bill what

3. Ones belief should be respected. a. Ones b. Ones' c. One's

In section D, the student chooses the best statement in each group:

1. a. A comma should always be between a town and state b. A town and state should always be separated by a comma. c. One should use a comma between the name of a town and the name of a state.

2. a. Between you and me, he acts as if he were intoxicated. Between you and me, he acts like he is intoxicated. c. Between you and I, he acts as if he was intoxicated.

3. a. What he says and his actions are no concern of mine. b. His saying and his actions being no concern of mine. c. What he says and does are no concern of mine.

Part two of the Freshmen Rhetoric Placement Test asks the freshman to write a theme on one of 20 suggested topics. If there is a discrepancy between the score on the multiple-choice test and the grade on the impromptu theme, the theme is given the more weight. The grade a student gets at the end of the semester is not a cold average of the grades he has received during the semester. Rather it is the instructor's estimate of the student's ability at the close of instruction.

Because Rhetoric 100 will be abandoned after the 1960 summer school session, student who enter high school next fall will have to take the regular freshman rhetoric course when they come to the University. If they do not proficient in the basics of English composition, they may fail the course. As a matter of fact, they will probably fail other courses, too. The Rhetoric Placement Test is regarded by some University authorities as the best predictor of college success of all tests given to entering freshmen.
